

Judd-358 - 1864-L cent in copper-nickel - Special thanks to Rick Snow for his assistance with these pedigrees.

NOTE THIS IS NOT A PATTERN

Proofs

1) Dr. Spurgeon, StacksBowers 5/19 (where mispedigreed prior to Spurgeon - see coin 4 below) - PCGS64

2) Judd, B/R RCR #21-25 1974-6, B/R 6/76, B/R RCR #28, unknown - NGC64, Rick Snow, Heathgate collection, Goldberg 2/01 - PCGS64 with spot in field near L in LIBERTY

3) Farouk as oroide, Stack's 9/89 as oroide, Rice collection, Heritage 2/25 - PCGS60 now known, per Rick Snow, to be copper-nickel

4) Lahrman-Kosoff 2/63, Paramount Rare Coin List #6 11/73, Paramount Rare Coin List #7 3/74, Paramount 11/74, Paramount 5/76, Stacks 6/77, Karpeles-Heritage 1/23 FUN - NGC61

Business Strikes

5) Heritage 1/15 - NGC61 (this may be a proof but from the image, it looks like a business strike)

6) Karpeles-Heritage 1/23 internet sale - NGAU53

7) Stacks 2/76, Stacks 5/84, Karpeles-Heritage 1/23 internet sale - NGAU50
 Compare Heritage with Stacks image

8) Horowitz, Rick Snow, Lutzel (2009) - ANACSAU50, corroded

9) Brian Raines - PCGSVF35

10) Szurek-SEGSPR60, east coast collector - NGC AU details, improperly cleaned

For additional information on many of these pieces, the following link is to an article by Brian Raines & Rick Snow.

<https://sites.google.com/indiancent.com/flying-eagle-and-indian-cent-b/home/1864/1864-with-l-cn>